Breakfast gets us started, then off we go to explore America’s largest national park! Our spacious luxury motorcoach is perfect for relaxing and taking in the views. Rushing waterfalls cradled between sheer black cliffs, a picture stop, and a dramatic ascent to the top of Thompson Pass takes us to the Wrangell-St. Elias National Park Visitor Center. Afterward, we continue to Fairbanks. Sleep well tonight, the next few days are packed with culture, history, wilderness, and puppies. (B,L,D)

Day 5—Fairbanks 7/24

We begin today aboard the Riverboat Discovery on a three-hour narrated tour on the Chena River. We will learn about Alaska Natives’ ability to live off the land and cope with the extremes of Mother Nature at an authentic Athabascan village. The sun rises early in Alaska, and chances are high we will too! There is a lot to squeeze in today—a sightseeing bus ride 42 miles deep into the outback of Denali National Park, lunch, and time on our own to explore. During the drive be on the lookout for moose, caribou, Dall sheep, wolves, grizzly bears, and of course Denali. (B,L,D)

From sunup to sundown, it is a day of eye-popping scenery. Starting our day with a warm meal at the lodge, we then step outside for one last morning of exquisite wilderness. Surrounded by vast forests and mountains, take in the beauty from the deck of the cabin, take a short hike around the lodge, observe helicopters landing on the beach, or perhaps add an optional activity. Later, we head back to the big city for a visit to the Anchorage Museum. Tonight we will have a farewell dinner with all our new friends. (B,L,D)

Day 10—Anchorage Sightseeing 7/29

Our final day in Alaska—we have planned a fun full day of mysteries before dinner and then arrival at the airport for our (10:30PM) overnight flight. (B,D)
