- * Delicious Meals
- * Prime Accommodations at the Clarion
- * St James Winery, Chicago Cutlery

Located in the heart of the US and surrounded by the Ozark Mountains, Branson has something for everyone. What is the thrill of Branson? Is it the unique atmosphere? The delicious dining? The mesmerizing shows? Or the beautiful sights? You'll get to experience all of it this fall as we venture to Missouri and explore this Midwestern gem. Our first day give us time to meet our fellow tour members with our overnight accommodations just outside of St. Louis. Our arrival into Branson takes place after today's lunch at the famed Lambert's—Home of the Throated Rolls. Time to settle in and then it's off to Country Evolution, the first show of its kind in Branson....a life documentary of sorts. After dinner the Texas Tenors will be a fabulous ending to our day. Our hotel for 3 nights in Branson will be the Clarion-Palace Inn located right on the famed strip. You'll have to make a difficult choice today—two great attractions but there is only time for one. Will you enjoy Silver Dollar City during it's annual Harvest Festival filled with flavorful foods and tons of entertainment OR All Hands on Deck show? Dinner at the fabulous Pickin Porch Grill followed by an evening show filled with humor and down-home country music, The Presley's Country Jubilee. The next morning takes us to a Personalized favorite—Clay Cooper! Later, wonderful The Six performance, followed by The Haygoods. Our final day in Branson, we see the Doug Gabriel morning show and enjoy a trip to the St James Winery before heading towards our hotel. On our final day towards home, a stop at the Russel Stover outlet will give us all a sweet treat. A fall-tastic time to be in the Ozarks.
