MAP AT A GLANCE

Monday, November 18th - Our journey begins as we depart this morning and head southwest. We make our way into St. Louis for the night. A light supper and drinks will provide plenty of time to make friends and enjoy ourselves before departing tomorrow morning for the Ozark Mountains. (LS)

Tuesday, November 19th - Today we take our time as we wander through the Ozark Mountains, stopping at great local destinations along the way. A morning stop at Chicago Cutlery gives us our first shopping stop. We will enjoy some time to look around and maybe even make a couple purchases before departing for the best time of the day - lunch and a show! The multi-talented Hughes Brothers and crew welcome us for a tasty three-course meal followed by a fabulous show. Between the singing, dancing, instrumentals, and comedy, this wholesome and energetic show will be something to behold. After, we will drop off luggage at our hotel before dinner. Dinner tonight is a delicious pizza buffet. This evening we prepare for a Branson favorite - The Dutton Family. What a great first day of live music and Branson's best. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, November 20th - Rise and shine as another glorious day of Christmas cheer awaits us. We have time to sleep in this morning and enjoy some local attractions before lunch. Then this afternoon, we are on to the main event. A worldwide phenomenon and finalists in season 4 of America's Got Talent, The Texas Tenors will delight us with a show that touches the soul and brings holiday cheer. A dazzling light display awaits us this evening with thousands of twinkling lights. Dinner tonight is at the fabulous favorite, Pickin' Porch Grill. After dinner, we take our seats for The Six Show - dubbed the Orchestra of Human Voices. Prepare to have your soul touched and your spirit raised in this fabulous show. (B,D)

Thursday, November 21st - A morning of music awaits after breakfast as we head to the fabulous Doug Gabriel Show. This show has been heralded as the best morning show in Branson for many years. The afternoon is yours to do as you choose. Maybe spend some time at the hotel relaxing or doing some local shopping. Or, climb aboard the coach and head to Silver Dollar City to explore during this most festive time of year. We will arrive back in time for dinner before our show this evening. To round out our day is the Presley's Country Jubilee. One of Branson's original performing families, the Presley family puts on a country and gospel show that will touch your heart and tickle your funny bone! (B,D)

Friday, November 22nd - Our time in the Live Entertainment Capital of the Midwest has come to an end. Before leaving Branson, we have time to fit in one more unique attraction. Where Jesus Walked is a one-of-a-kind experience that takes you through the journey of Jesus Christ's life. Taking us on a 100-mile journey and showing the modern-day locations where Jesus walked, this is sure to remind you of the reason for the season. We enjoy a lunch stop at Lambert's Café, and no trip would be complete without a stop for wine at St James Winery. We arrive tonight at our hotel outside of St Louis and have one final night of comradery with our new friends. (B,L,LS)

Saturday, November 23rd - As we make our way home through Illinois and Wisconsin once again, we are filled with holiday cheer and we look forward to the season ahead. So much great entertainment, bright Christmas lights, and festive attitudes make this the perfect trip to begin the season. Bring on Christmas! (B,L)
