

CHRISTIAN CONCERT SERIES

The Sound

Wednesday, May 6

The Sound, comprised of Rob Mills and his two sons, Levi and Jacob, joins us on May 6th.

Formed in 2017, they have captured the attention and affections of fans around the world, having performed live for thousands and entertained millions through television, social media, and radio. Their latest album, God Is Real, is a trailblazing record that incorporates elements of Nashville country-pop and worship. It was released in 2022 and won a Dove Award for Country Album of the Year.

The Inspirations

Wednesday, June 17

Every July for 60 years the Southern Gospel group, The Inspirations, hosts Singing in the Smokies, a festival that draws thousands to their native Bryson City. The quartet itself formed two years before the first gathering. Today, The Inspirations are considered one of the most important groups ever to sing and record Southern gospel music. They recently won the 2025 Singing News Fan Awards for Song of the Year and Favorite Quartet, Artist, Musician, Album. Their sound is known in the world of Christian music as the Smoky Mountain style of Southern gospel quartet singing. They have sold more than one million copies of their sixty albums.

High Road

Wednesday, September 30

After selling out in 2024 and 2025 we are thrilled to welcome back Sarah Davison, a gifted pianist, vocalist, and songwriter, joined Nicole Croteau, Rachel Crick, and Kristen Bearfield. High Road has earned a Grammy nomination for the album, "Gonna Sing, Gonna Shout", Singing News New Artist of the Year, a Dove Award nomination for Bluegrass/Roots Album of the Year, and 2022 Singing News Band of the Year. With a repertoire including country, bluegrass, Gospel, and contemporary Christian they combine lush harmonies, grassy instrumentation, and nostalgia-laden melodies you're sure to love!
