Friday, May 9 – Today we depart for Michigan as we look forward to three full days of floral fun! We will arrive in Holland by early afternoon, where we will be greeted by our step-on guide. The guide will take us through the town and explain the history and culture that created the Tulip Time celebration we know today. Dinner will be in town before we take our seats for tonight's main event – Rodney Atkins! Known for his soulful country sound, Rodney charted his first single on the Billboard Country Music chart in 1997, and has been making hits ever since. "Caught Up In The Country," "Farmer's Daughter," "These Are My People," and "It's America" are among some of his most well known songs. This is sure to be a night of great music and fun – what a perfect way to start our tour! (D)

Saturday, May 10 – This morning we enjoy breakfast before heading out for a busy day. We will explore Nelis' Dutch Village. Step back into the Netherlands of over 100 years ago. Within this happy village, we will learn all about the culture and heritage of the Dutch people who immigrated to the United States. Next up is the Tulip Time Quilt Show – always a beloved stop. Stroll through the displays and see some of the most beautiful and intricate quilts in the Midwest. Veldheer Tulip Gardens welcomes us after our time at the quilt show. Beginning in 1950 as a hobby farm, Veldheer plants over 5.5 million tulips and is the only perennial garden and tulip farm in Holland, MI. After Veldheer, it's time to take our seats for the annual Volksparade through the town. Dinner will be enjoyed in town again tonight, before our evening entertainment. The Holland Community Theater will be putting on a special production of Every Little Crook and Nanny. (B,D)

Sunday, May 11 – Our time in the tulip town has come to an end. We make another stop before leaving Holland at the Windmill Island Gardens before we depart for home. What a great weekend of floral fun! (B,L)
