Tour #8286

Thursday, May 9 - Today we depart for Michigan for four days of fun. We will arrive in time for an evening dinner in Holland. Our night is finished with a fabulous performance by the Texas Tenors. (D)

Friday, May 10 - Our first full day in Holland! Get ready to see some great shows, try delicious food, and of course see some beautiful tulips. We take our reserved seats for the Volksparade, where dozens of local bands take to the streets to showcase their talents along with floats honoring the tulip and Dutch history. After dinner, it's time to see the country star, Scotty McCreery! After dancing and singing the night away, we tuck ourselves into bed. (B,D)

Saturday, May 11 - A day filled with more tulip time fun, we will explore some local tulip displays and demonstrations. A guided tour of the town will give us a more in depth look at the history and heritage. Finally, a show to tug on your heartstrings, the Holland Community Theater will treat us to their rendition of "On Golden Pond." This classic story takes us through tales of love and loss, family relationships, and healing the wounds of our past. Be sure to bring along your tissues for this one. (B,D)

Sunday, May 12 - After three full days of fun, we depart for home. As our motorcoach travels towards home, we get our last glimpse of the spectacular tulips. What a great weekend! (B,L)
