Map At A Glance

Thursday, June 26 - An early morning start to give us plenty of time for Mackinac Island is how our day begins! With classic homes, horse-drawn carriages, and quaint shops, the island is a fun yet relaxing getaway and a great way to welcome summer. We enjoy a scenic Pictured Rock Cruise before dinner. We overnight in Munising. (L,D)

Friday, June 27 -It is off to Mackinac Island! After grabbing a bite to eat for breakfast, we will head to the dock and board our ferry. The approximately 18 minute journey will take us to the beautiful island and drop us right into the heart of downtown. This beautiful and historic island that sits between the upper and lower peninsula of Michigan has been a top destination for years. Our stay on the island is a bucket-list item - The Grand Hotel! No two rooms are the same and each has its own unique charm and personality. This tour is sure to check off your entire Mackinac Island Must See list. Dinner at the Grand Hotel is an elegant affair this evening. Live entertainment from the Grand Hotel Orchestra and a five-course menu create a luxurious environment for a delicious dinner. (B, D) \*Formal attire is required for dinner at the Grand. Dresses, skirts, blouses, sweaters, and dress slacks are preferred for ladies. Gentlemen are required to wear a suit or sport coat, necktie, and dress pants (no denim or shorts).***

Saturday, June 28 - Breakfast is included this morning at the Grand Hotel. This is not your average continental buffet breakfast. Each morning, overlooking the world's longest porch and the Straits of Mackinac, the main dining room offers one of the most picturesque dining locations. Watch as the sun rises across the island while the town is still asleep. Breakfast includes a wide selection of entrees including omelets, eggs any style, hot and cold cereals, pancakes, French toast (with authentic Michigan maple syrup), breakfast meats, salmon, steak, fresh bread, and pastries. The day is yours to continue exploring the island and taking in any sights you may have missed upon arrival. Don't forget to stop by some of the local artisan shops and boutiques! We enjoy a horse-drawn carriage ride through the island to learn of its history and unique culture. Stroll through the streets and beautiful gardens along the island. Rent a bike (or even a horse) to see the island from a new perspective. Historic Fort Mackinac will give you a look into the early days of the island and its settlers. Shopping is a must, with some of the best fudge around, made right in front of you. Butterfly gardens, The Manoojian Art Museum, and so much more will help you fall in love with this quaint place. (B, D)

Sunday, June 29 - After two wonderful nights at the Grand Hotel, we board our ferry and return to the mainland. On our journey home we take a stop along the way for a delicious lunch. (B, L)
