

Monuments & Musicals

Washington DC & New York City

May 5-11, 2023 (7 Days)

CityScapes: A tour for those who are mobile and enjoy soaking up the culture, while exploring a new city either on foot, taxi, or while utilizing local transportation. Our first CityScapes combines two giants of the East Coast—Washington DC and New York City in one spectacular sampler. From the most famous monuments to the most popular musicals, we will see so much this week. We will travel by plane, taxi, and train! And in between on foot...

Highlights:

- Washington DC 3-night stay
- Monuments by Moonlight Illumination Tour & City Tour
- Smithsonian Museums
- Arlington National Cemetery
- Amtrak from DC to NYC
- Top of the Rock
- Broadway Show
- 9-11 Memorial & Museum
- Double Decker City Tour

Tour #6399

Friday, May 5—It's time for our exciting CityScapes tour! Your tour director, Tracy Schueller, will greet you in Milwaukee at the airport or on the transportation to the airport. Get acquainted with the other travelers on our morning flight to Reagan National airport in Washington DC. Our group will transfer to our hotel located in Crystal City, just across the river from downtown. Time for lunch and a look around before we settle in for a 3-

night stay. We visit the Pentagon Memorial before heading into the city for dinner and a spectacular ILLUMINATION TOUR that includes stops at the Jefferson Memorial, WWII Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, Vietnam Memorial, Korean War Memorial, Washington Monument, the White House and the Capitol. An awesome Monuments by Moonlight tour. D

Saturday, May 6—We set off after breakfast and make full use of our time by forgetting all the traffic and letting the subway take us into our nation’s capitol, Washington D.C. This sprawling metropolis is not only home to the country’s most important political figures, but hundreds of museums and historic locations. Our group utilizes the wonderful subway system to the National Mall. We spend the day visiting the museums of our choice: Natural History, American History, Holocaust Memorial Museum, and the famous Air & Space Museum. This evening, we will enjoy dinner in the city before we turn in for the day. B,D

Sunday, May 7—Today we venture to Arlington National Cemetery to ride the informative tour mobile. We will visit the John F Kennedy family gravesite and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. The afternoon is free to explore your own interests with the help of your tour director. B,L

Monday, May 8—This morning we transfer to Union Station and board Amtrak for the ride to New York City. We arrive in the Big Apple after 2.5 hours of relaxing on the train. From Penn Station we enjoy lunch and transfer to our hotel located right in Times Square! This evening enjoy dinner on your own at one of the many famous eateries in the city. If you are still looking for something to do after dinner, meet your tour director for a visit to the Top of the Rock. What a view!! B,L

Tuesday, May 9—Rise and shine! It’s another beautiful day in the city. Our morning is filled with sights and sounds as we tour NYC via a double-decker bus. There is so much to see and do, it’s nearly impossible to fit it all in one day. We will see some of the most famous sites like the Empire State Building and The Statue of Liberty as we hop on and hop off at the locations we want to visit. As evening falls and the lights of Times Square begin to shine, we make our way to Broadway for dinner and a show on the famous “Great White Way.” B,D

Wednesday, May 10—Today is at your leisure. Join Tracy if you’d like to see the 9-11 Memorial or take time to explore Central Park, shop 5th Avenue, or just relax watching the multitudes of people pass by. Your tour director will be available to help with plans and optional Broadway shows. B

Thursday, May 11—Today we transfer to the airport for our flight back to Milwaukee with our new friends. B
