Sunday, October 11 - Your adventure begins as we journey to Louisville, where you'll settle in and get to know your fellow travelers. It's the perfect time to relax, get excited for the week ahead, and prepare for the musical magic waiting in Nashville. (LS)

Monday, October 12 - Today, we arrive in the legendary Music City! Dive right into Nashville's rich musical roots with admission to the Country Music Hall of Fame, where you'll enjoy a special songwriter experience—a unique opportunity to hear the stories behind the songs. Next, step into music history on a guided tour of the famous RCA Studio B, where legends like Elvis Presley recorded some of their biggest hits. The day wraps up with a delicious welcome dinner at Paula Deen's, complete with exclusive live entertainment—a warm and musical introduction to Nashville. (B, D)

Tuesday, October 13 - This morning, you'll experience Nashville through the eyes (and voice!) of a singing guide on a fun and lively city tour. Afterwards, enjoy time to shop and dine at Opry Mills, one of the region's top shopping destinations. Then it's on to a backstage tour of the Grand Ole Opry, where you'll go behind the curtain of this iconic venue. Enjoy a hearty Southern meal at Santa Fe Cattle Company, then end the day with a true bucket-list experience: a live Grand Ole Opry show, where country music legends and rising stars take the stage. (B, D)

Wednesday, October 14 - Today is yours to explore! Stroll down Broadway, pop into honky-tonks, discover hidden music gems, shop for souvenirs, or relax in one of the city's many cafes. As the sun sets, we'll gather for a delicious dinner at Puckett's, where you'll be treated to live entertainment from Mark Cash, a talented performer with a rich musical legacy—he's the nephew of Johnny Cash! (B, D)

Thursday, October 15 - We say farewell to Nashville and make our way back to Louisville, but the fun isn't over yet! Tonight, we'll enjoy a lively and entertaining experience at the Derby Dinner Playhouse, combining great food with fantastic live theater—a perfect way to reflect on our incredible journey. (D)

Friday, October 16 - After a music-filled, memory-making adventure, it's time to head home. You'll be bringing back stories, songs, and unforgettable moments from the heart of Music City. (B)
