Tracy's Travels

We're excited to share some positive changes happening within our company! We're thrilled to welcome Jerry Schueller as our new VP of Operations. Jerry brings years of valuable business experience and leadership that will help guide us into our next chapter. We're also happy to officially welcome Emilie Riebe to our Charter Department. Emilie has been a familiar contact to some of us through her years working with Concordia University as their athletic department's administrative assistant, and we're excited to now have her on our team expanding our charter department.

We truly appreciate your patience as we've juggled double duty during our search and training process to find just the right people. And due diligence has paid off...we have found the right people! We're also looking forward to the return of our amazing intern, Laney Bares, and our newest team member Alana Gulke. This summer – they are the cherry on top!

As we continue to grow, we've taken a step back to remember what has kept us going strong for the past 38 years: you, our customers. Your support and loyalty have allowed us to provide personalized, thoughtful service – and that's what we'll always remain committed to. Thank you for being part of our journey, we're excited for what's ahead!
