It's a great chance for us to relax before the real festivities begin! (D)

Thursday, June 12 - This morning we depart from Louisville and head into Nashville! We'll arrive at the iconic Gaylord Opryland Hotel, a stunning destination with lush indoor gardens, cascading waterfalls, and scenic riverboat rides. After checking in, we'll embark on a guided walking tour through the hotel's expansive conservatories and discover its hidden gems. In the evening, we'll celebrate the Grand Ole Opry's 100th anniversary with an exclusive backstage dinner party at the historic Opry House, featuring live entertainment and a special guest appearance from a country music artist. Following dinner, we'll enjoy reserved seating for the world-famous Grand Ole Opry Show. As part of the celebration, we'll receive special edition souvenirs, including a commemorative ticket, poster, and lapel pin. Don't forget to snap a photo by the giant Opry birthday cake as a keepsake from this unforgettable night! (B,D)

Friday, June 13 - The day begins with a guided tour of Nashville, taking in the sights and sounds of Music City. We'll explore the lively Honky Tonk Highway on Broadway, the majestic State Capitol, and learn about the rich musical heritage of this vibrant city. Afterward, we'll board the grand General Jackson Showboat for a scenic lunch cruise along the Cumberland River, complete with delicious Southern-style cuisine and live entertainment featuring classic country hits. The cruise offers stunning views of Nashville's skyline and picturesque riverbanks. In the afternoon, we'll dive deeper into country music history with a backstage tour of the legendary Opry House, walking in the footsteps of the genre's greatest stars and standing on the iconic stage. The evening is free for us to explore Nashville's fantastic dining scene, from Hot Chicken to Southern comfort food. To wrap up the day, we'll head to historic Franklin for a special Friday The 13th Ghost Tour. As we stroll through its haunted streets, we'll hear eerie tales of Civil War spirits and mysterious happenings that are sure to give us chills! (B,L)

Saturday, June 14 - The day begins with a visit to the Country Music Hall of Fame, a treasure trove of memorabilia and exhibits dedicated to the legends of country music. After exploring the museum, a guided tour of RCA Studio B awaits, where icons like Elvis Presley and Dolly Parton recorded their timeless hits in Nashville's oldest surviving recording studio. For lunch, downtown Nashville offers a variety of restaurants to explore, from trendy spots to classic Southern diners. Take time to enjoy the lively atmosphere and discover the local flavors at your own pace. In the evening, we'll head to Santa Fe Cattle Company for a hearty dinner and a private musical performance by award-winning country duo Dave and Daphne. With their soulful vocals, acoustic mastery, and entertaining storytelling, this will be an unforgettable night filled with great food, great music, and great company. (B,D)
