

SPEAKEASY SECRETS

Thursday October 2, 2025

Tucked behind an unmarked door, The Safe House in Milwaukee channels the mystery of Prohibition—a time of hidden bars, secret codes, and whispered passwords. Inside, you'll find classic cocktails, hearty lunches, and an air of 1920s intrigue. Just a stroll away stands the Bronze Fonz, honoring Milwaukee's link to Happy Days and its cool TV icon, Fonzie. Nearby, the Grohmann Museum showcases humanity at work, with a vast collection of industrial-themed art. From espionage and era-themed dining to pop culture and powerful paintings, this part of Milwaukee blends playful nostalgia with rich cultural heritage. A surprise or two along the way. Ladies don your dress with layers of fringe, sequins, or feathers, and gentleman grab your fedora, vest or suspenders and let's bring back the roarin' 20's!!
