

Spring Swing...

TUESDAY MAY 5, 2026

on a Theater Organ
with Swing, Big Band,
and American Songbook
selections.

A musical day at the magnificent Sanfilippo Estate in Barrington Hills promises to be nothing short of enchanting. The experience begins with a delicious plated lunch, offering guests a relaxing and elegant start to the festivities. Afterward, you'll have the chance to roam the breathtaking pavilion collection, where historic artistry and mechanical wonder come together. Throughout the afternoon, demonstrations of band and dance organs fill the air with lively rhythms, while the carousel—an iconic centerpiece of the estate—comes to life in a dazzling display of color, sound, and motion. The highlight of the day will be a spectacular 90-minute theatre organ concert featuring the dynamic talents of organist Zach Frame on the 7,000+ pipe Wurlitzer Organ. His performance, filled with the vibrant energy of big band and swing music, will showcase the remarkable power and richness of the estate's world-class instrument. Following the concert, guests will continue their adventure through the estate's extraordinary collections. Knowledgeable docents will be stationed throughout the house, bringing the music machines to life with engaging demonstrations and stories that reveal their remarkable craftsmanship and history. Re-live the nostalgia of one of the greatest eras in music! Guests are encouraged to dress in their best spring outfits and most striking hats. From start to finish, this immersive musical journey promises to be a fabulous celebration of sound, artistry, and the timeless magic of mechanical music.
